

WANT HAWAIIAN AS TRUSTEE OF BISHOP ESTATE

Kamehameha Graduates Will Present Three Candidates
at Hearing Tomorrow

Three distinct questions upon which argument may be based will be raised in Circuit Judge Ashford's court at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning during the hearing on the nomination by the supreme court of William Williamson to succeed Samuel M. Damon, resigned, as a trustee of the Bishop Estate.

They are these:
1. Does the nomination of a candidate by the supreme court constitute a valid, binding and final appointment of a trustee?
2. If not, has the circuit court, sitting in equity, authority to reject that nomination and call for another to be made by the supreme court justices?

3. Has the right of the supreme court justices to nominate or appoint a trustee been repealed or abolished by the reorganization of the judiciary system whereby the appointment of trustees (that being a function of equity) is conferred upon a judge of the circuit court sitting in equity?

The foregoing questions include a fourth question, Judge Ashford points out. This is, "Has the judge of the circuit court who handles the equity calendar the sole right to appoint such a trustee entirely independent of the justices of the supreme court?"

In view of the fact that he has announced that, in his opinion, it is time one of the Hawaiian race was appointed to the board of trustees of the Bishop Estate, Judge Ashford will hear further arguments and opinions tomorrow on the supreme court's nomination of Williamson. He has requested Judges Antonio Perry, David L. Withington and A. S. Humphreys to attend the hearing as "friends of the court."

Judge Ashford was interviewed this morning by four members of a committee of seven appointed at a meeting last night of the alumni and alumnae of the Kamehameha Schools, with a view to supporting the court's proposition to appoint a Hawaiian as a Bishop Estate trustee.

It is understood that the associations, having retained Attorney R. C. Peters as counsel to represent them at tomorrow's hearing, will present, through their attorney, a list of names of alumni of Kamehameha embodying their first, second and third choices as candidates for the trusteeship.

The committee members stated to Judge Ashford that the meeting was attended by nearly 150 former students of Kamehameha. Although the list of candidates has not been made public it is understood from a reliable authority that Charles E. King and Samuel Kanehine, the latter being chairman of the Hawaii supervisors, are first choices.

Judge Ashford told the Star-Bulletin today that he has been called on by numerous men and women, including many Hawaiians, for the purpose of expressing their approval of the attitude taken by him in suggesting that a Hawaiian be appointed as trustee. They all expressed the hope that the plan will be worked out as suggested by the court.

"The list of persons who called and

FORT SHAFTER, June 14.—The officers of the garrison, who are being examined for promotion under the new bill, have completed the physical and mental parts of the examination and on Wednesday and Thursday will complete the practical work.

Maj. William Weigel, 2d Infantry, has been appointed first sergeant, relieving Maj. Michael J. Leelan, who is now on duty at Department Headquarters.

These officers and non commissioned officers of the 1st Battalion who will be sent to the mainland on the next transport for duty as instructors at the students' camp have been ordered to fire their target practice with the 2d Battalion, which is now on the range, so as to complete it before their departure.

Capt. William E. Hunt, who arrived on the Sherman, has been assigned to command Company L. This company was formerly commanded by Capt. Barker.

Capt. George H. Jamerson has been relieved as post and regimental adjutant and 1st Lieut. Lloyd R. Fredendall has been named as his successor. Capt. Jamerson has been adjutant for the past year.

1st Lieut. Raymond R. Wheeler and Paul S. Rienecke, Corps of Engineers, completed their examination for promotion on Tuesday. The board was composed of Maj. R. R. Raymond and Capt. C. J. Taylor and R. P. Howell.

The following promotions have been made in the 2d Infantry upon the recommendations of their respective company commanders: In A Company, 1st Lieut. Ralph R. expressed themselves includes men of the highest prominence in business, professional and agricultural occupations," says Judge Ashford.

Regarding the pending appointment of a successor to Samuel M. Damon, resigned, as trustee of the Bishop Estate, Circuit Judge Ashford, in whose court the matter will be heard tomorrow, has received the following letter from a man well known in Honolulu and on Kauai:

"Allow me to congratulate you on your stand that it was high time that some Hawaiian be elected to the office of a trustee of the Bishop Estate. There are several graduates of the Kamehameha School who could fill the position to the credit of the Hawaiian race, as well as to the school from which they graduated, and I am sure that there are many who feel also that common justice should give them a representation on the board."

Judge Ashford says that this is but one of many expressions of opinion received by him in this matter.

The transatlantic steamship lanes are remarkably free from ice this year, Capt. Lewis of the coast guard cutter Seneca reported.

Y. W. C. A. WILL APPOINT TRAVEL AID ASSISTANT

At a meeting of the directors of the Y. W. C. A. held yesterday morning at the association building, it was voted to appoint a travel aid assistant for work on the inter-island boats and coastwise steamers.

During the summer there is much travel among the young girls returning to and from school to their homes, and it was thought that for the best interests of the association work that an aid be appointed. The directors have not as yet nominated the worker.

Plans for the establishment of the summer camp at Pearl Harbor were discussed and a committee report was voted upon. Nothing was done regarding the movie city welfare work, and this matter will be taken up at a later meeting of the board.

ANCIENT PROBATE CASE DECIDED BY DECREE OF CIRCUIT JUDGE WHITNEY

In a decree handed down today by Circuit Judge Whitney the contest arising out of the probate of the will of the late Isaac Iihii has been settled as far as the lower court is concerned. The decree denies the petition of the four Kahaulelio minors for an order distributing to them an undivided one-half share in the estate, and holds that the sole heir is David Kael Kahaulelio. Judge Whitney orders that Kahaulelio be paid any money now in court which belongs to the estate.

The battleships Florida and New Hampshire and the U. S. transport Kilpatrick left New York to engage in practice maneuvers at sea.

Following her refusal to marry him Harry E. Tokar, manager of a hotel at Cincinnati, shot and killed Mrs. Nannie S. Beatty, widow of the Rev. Sherard Beatty.

It is said that crime increases at the rate of 300 per cent every 20 years.

KILAUEA GREAT, GUIDANCE SHOULD BE BETTER—KLAW

the chauffeur, telling him about some of the things which he would pass on the way. In my trip around Hilo my driver vouchsafed just three bits of information. He pointed out a house on the left which he said was a private residence; a clump of trees on the right which he wisely informed me were coconut trees—the presumption being that I had not seen any or recognized them in Honolulu; and the third bit of information (and this was new to me) was to point out the cane shoots.

What I meant particularly was that there should be a little map, or that the man who takes you to the crater's brink should be examined by some authority to ascertain that they (the drivers) are competent. When I got to Kilauea I asked my Japanese driver if he knew his way about there and he said yes, and then promptly walked us across the lava beds instead of following a path which we afterwards saw and which must have been obvious to anyone but a blind man. There was a southerly wind at the time; the sulphur fumes came up in thick gusts; I was actually blinded by the pain in my eyes and a lady in the party almost staggered. The Japanese chauffeur himself came galloping across our path with his hat in front of his face, whooping like a child with the whooping cough and paying no attention to anything but his own safety, which was quite natural and for which I bear him no resentment. I claim that man is incompetent to take anybody. As there was a fog all around the crater and the pit, we were just as apt to stagger and stumble in one direction as in another and it is only a matter of time before some tragedy will ensue, unless this matter is given attention.

I want to thank Mr. de Vis-Norton for his courteous invitation to make another visit to the volcano and I only regret that I left Honolulu before I received it. I sailed on the 3rd of May and his interview was printed on the 4th. In my estimation you have the greatest wonder of the world here at Kilauea. Take good care of it and try to get everyone to come to see it.

Yours for Hawaii,
MARC KLAW.

POLICE COURT NOTES

Rosi Goldstein got a bruise on her right cheek, had her false teeth cracked and an inner membrane of her mouth broken in a fight yesterday. She was treated at the emergency hospital about noon and John J. Fenton was locked up charged with assault.

Ruining her clothes, taking her canary bird, breaking up furniture and threatening her with violence were a few charges made by Lydia Hassens against William Drake in police court this morning. Drake pleaded guilty and was given a suspended sentence when he promised to stay away from her.

Though suffering with tuberculosis, G. Laesaki was charged in police court today with chasing a small boy in twilet with a hatchet Saturday night. The defendant explained that a gang of small boys had been bothering him and he threw the hatchet at them. The complaining witness was told to leave him alone and Laesaki was discharged.

Because an important witness for the prosecution was unable to attend court this morning, the case of Robert Dewar, accused of receiving stolen goods, was continued until tomorrow morning. The defense was promised that the trial would start promptly at 10 o'clock. A plea of not guilty was entered yesterday by Dewar. This is the Rapid Transit ticket case.

are as often subject to headache—sore languid, pale and nervous—because their blood is thin or insufficient. They are not really sick and hesitate to complain, but they lack that ambition and vivacity which is their birthright. They do not need drugs—but do need tonic and nourishment in Scott's Emulsion that makes richer blood, fills hollow cheeks, suppresses nervousness and establishes strength. Nourishment alone makes blood and Scott's Emulsion is the essence of concentrated nourishment, free from wines, alcohols or opiates.
